Suppl 3. Clinical findings described by histopathological imaging examinations. A. Gross findings of excised tissue of right fallopian tube by surgical treatment is shown in the panel A. B. Clinical findings described by the histopathological imaging examination is shown in the panel B. The clinical evidence of the ectopic pregnancy in right fallopian tube is shown in the panel B. The location of fetus from ectopic pregnancy at growth period in right fallopian tube is indicated by white dotted square line in the panel A and black dotted square line in the panel B. C. Detailed histological features of fetus from ectopic pregnancies is shown in the panel C. The histological features of fetus observed at growth period, i.e., dorsal aorta (DA), genital ridge (GR), hindgut and neural tube (NT) are shown in the panel C.

References